Chapter 1 by Story Wars

Jayden tried not struggle against the restraints, but the stupid techs hadn't weighed her correctly and now she had woken up from the anesthesia. Though this wasn't the first time she'd woke up during genetic surgery, and she knew she would black out soon.

-Many hours later-

She was back in her "dorm", wrapped in light cloth and a duvet on top. Jayden knew that the only reason she was allowed such comfort was the fact she was the oldest living experiment at Johanson Genetics International Laboratories. She had been shipped around the world to be worked on by doctors and professors alike. And then sleep.
